

Presents

BLUE MOUNTAINS HISTORY CONFERENCE 2020 'Industrial Heritage'

Dedicated to Professor Ian Jack – A National Trust Australian Heritage Festival Event to be held at Lithgow Workmen's Club, 3 – 7 Tank Street, Lithgow on Saturday 16 May 2020

PROGRAM

8.45am to 9.15am	Registration
9.15am	MC Housekeeping and Welcome to Country
9.30 am	Ray Christison – Keynote Speaker, The Ian Jack Address 'Ian Jack and Lithgow's Industrial Past – an inspiration to us all'
10.30am	Morning Tea
11.00 am	Keith Painter – '1920s Chert Ventures at Mount Victoria'
11.30 am	Phil Hammon – 'Searching for the Remains'
12 noon	Garry Reynolds – 'Why Wallerawang'
12.30 pm	Lunch
1.30 pm	David Mort – 'Thomas Mort's picnic train to Lithgow first step in frozen food trade'
2.00 pm	Bob McKillop – 'Furnace, Fire & Forge'
2.30 pm	Renzo Benedet – 'The Lithgow Small Arms Factory – the microcosm of precision engineering'
3.00pm	Afternoon Tea
3.30pm	Vaughan Bryers – 'Lithgow's Zig Zag Brewery 1888 – 1958 People and Production'
4.00 pm	Naomi Parry – 'Being in itself probably the most important of all relics'
4.30 pm	Close