

They Served Their Country Parts I and II

Pre-order Details and Form

Newcastle Family History Society Inc. (NFHS) will launch its newest publication They Served Their Country Parts I and II on 3 May 2024 at Jesmond Bowling Club.

There are two parts to the Publication. Each part is available as an A4 book (printed in colour throughout).

Stories contained in these volumes range from the Maori Wars through to Afghanistan. As well as stories about those who served, you can also read about other military-related items such as Aussie, the WWI soldiers' newspaper, the remarkable statues in the Hyde Park War Memorial and the soldier poet who wrote 'In Flanders' Fields', to name just a few.

We are currently taking orders for this publication and have a special discounted price for the launch of $90 for the pair or $45 each. Postage can be arranged for orders if it is required. After the launch each book will cost $50. Parts 1 and 2 of They Served Their Country will be available through our website as a download after the launch. Watch our newsletter, website and Facebook page for release details!

Pre-orders will be available for collection at the launch at Jesmond Bowling Club or after the launch on Saturday, 4 May 2024 from 10 o'clock at the Society's rooms at the Mechanics Institute, Elder Street, Lambton.

PLEASE NOTE: No additional member discounts will apply to purchases of either volume separately or as a set until after the launch (from 4 May 2024) when their NFHS membership entitles them to a 10% discount off the price of their first purchase of either publication. To claim this discount please show your membership card to the Duty Librarians at the Society when purchasing.
